Elated at their success in enlisting 500 new members of THE VOLUNTEERS last Sunday at the Maine township Republican picnic, a group of public-spirited women of Park Ridge called at headquarters on the 17th floor of Tribune Tower yesterday and announced their intention of conducting the Park Ridge VOLUNTEER unit as a "model plan" for community activity in behalf of the Landon-Knox ticket.

Through meticulous organization work, house to house canvasses, entertainments, and meetings, the women believe they can stimulate the enthusiasm already noted for Landon and Knox so that the work of the Park Ridge unit will be worthy of emulation.

Visitors at Headquarters.

Among the group which visited VOLUNTEER headquarters were Mrs. Walter W. Springer, president of the Republican Women of Park Ridge; Mrs. Frank S. Hayles, Mrs. Charles R. Stevens, Miss Helen Stevens, Mrs. William F. J. Lutz, and Mrs. Herbert A. Sloan.

An offer of help in organizing VOLUNTEER units in Toledo, O., came from Charles E. Bartley, 5045 Drexel patriotic meetings to lead Landon songs. Among them was one from the Regular Republican club of Lilydale which will hold a rally tonight in the Lilydale First Baptist church, 9537 Perry avenue.

Cora Silberstein, 926 South Fairfield avenue, notified Mr. Maxwell that she is organizing a VOLUNTEER glee club of boys and girls who will sing Landon songs at playgrounds and children's parties. A Landon-Knox male quartet is being recruited by L. N. Lindemann, 5759 North Washtenaw avenue.

Children, attending the regular Wednesday children's rehearsal in VOLUNTEER headquarters, sang new Landon-Knox songs and also were taught Landon-Knox cheers by Verling Pierson of Valparaiso, Ind., an Indiana university senior.

boulevard, a wholesale grocer, who wrote that Arthur W. Doering, auditor of the Toledo branch of the Bartley wholesale grocery concern, would solicit memberships from customers at the branch.

"I believe that at least 2,000 memberships can be obtained by Mr. Doering," Mr. Bartley said. Literature and pledge cards were sent immediately to Toledo.

Phil Maxwell, head of the music division, had several requests yesterday to send song directors to various
